

Declaration 2007

New Japan Declaration

Whatever is wrong, let's make it right.

The existing political system in Japan was established by Nagata-cho and Kasumigaseki in order to realize economic growth in the post-WWII period.

But now, that system is plagued by institutional fatigue in a variety of fields.

Breaking away from a mindset buried in past successes, we must take steps towards a political system that offers hope to people who are earnestly working, studying,

and living in this country.

Now is the time, to expose what is wrong

Now is the time, to work together to make a change

That is our responsibility as adults to future generations

Now is the time, toward a Japan we can trust

New Party Nippon will pave the road toward a "New Japan" filled with hope.

Why can't we change what's wrong with Japan?

New Party Nippon has no constraints

Your wish can become reality

New Party Nippon has the answer.
